Attendance:

New Vendors: All new vendors start out as day vendors for their first market season. New vendors are on a trial period for the first two markets to give the vendor the opportunity to showcase their products to our jury and help the market board to make a decision to accept this new vendor and/or specific products the vendors make.

Season Vendors: If you commit to attend the full season you will have your permanent vendor spot. Please inform the market manager by noon on Wednesday by email enderbyfarmersmarket@gmail.com if you cannot attend a market. This ensures that we can provide the space to a day vendor on our waiting list.

Day Vendors: will be assigned a space by our market manager, as seen fit. Each week you will receive an email letting you know if you have a space, please email back to confirm that you will attend. If you do not confirm your space will not be held for you.
